

In order to understand the standards and the development process of the human rights protection, the experiences of promoting the implementation of human rights conventions in Europe, Canada and other countries, on March 28, August 28, October 16-18, 2012, Ministry of Justice held ICCPR&ICESCR related thematic speech activities which were co-sponsored by British Trade and Cultural Office, the French Institute in Taiwan, the German Institute in Taiwan, the European Economic and Trade Office and the Canadian Trade Office in Taipei. There were a total of 1,033 people participated in this event.

