

In order to understand the standards and the development process of the human rights protection, the experiences of promoting the implementation of human rights conventions in Europe, Ministry of Justice held thematic speech "Strengthening International Participation -The Implementation of the Human Rights Convention in EU", on March 28, 2012. Invited knowledgeable senior European judges, Nicholas Blake, the presiding judge of the British Immigration and Refugee Appeal Tribunal and French Supreme Court Chief Deputy Attorney General Yves Charpenel, to have two thematic speeches ,respectively, " the Application of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights in Domestic law "and " How did France specifically implement the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and other international human rights standards". The minister of Justice had an opening remark and there were a total of 353 public servants participated in this event. (Meeting Information Attached)

