

From June 29 to July 6, 2013, Peng Kun-Ye, Director of Legal systems department of Ministry of Justice, and prosecutor Guo Ming-Lee visited UN officials of USA, UN human rights experts, judicial research training experts, Professors of International Human Rights Law and NGO researchers and conducted a survey of the planning, measures and achievements for implementation of international obligations under the convention on human rights in the United States. There were a total of 9 people participated in this event.

