

On September 9-13, 2013, members of Presidential Advisory Committee on Human Rights including Huang Mo, Huang Chun-chieh and Zhang Jue, were accompanied by Prosecutor Guo Ming-Lee to visit the Canadian Human Rights Commission, the BC human rights tribunal, the BC Human Rights Association and Community Legal Aid Council, Human Rights Division of the Ministry of Justice, International Trade Development and Human Rights Policy Division of Ministry of Foreign Affairs, UN Human Rights and Economic Law Division ,Canada's federal and local officials ,academics and non-governmental organizations in Canada. During the survey, in addition to the exchange and sharing of experiences with Canadian human rights agencies and units, Canadian officials also shared their human rights foreign policy, Human Rights Commission, Human Rights tribunal, the implementation and operation of human rights tribunal in BC, so as to act as the research and planning reference for our national human rights institutions and relevant human rights system. There were a total of 50 people participated in this event.