

Erin Brady and Laurie Sargent, both are Senior Counsel of the Department of Justice Canada, visited the Ministry of Justice to conduct a national report forum with government representatives and scholars. This forum focused on writing process and report reviews of national reports.

