

On May 30, 2013, the EU and the Ministry of Justice conducted "The 24th Taiwan and EU Non-trade Issues Consultative Interim video-conference". This video-conference focused on the death penalty, human rights cooperation, establishment and operation of national human rights institutions, judges and prosecutors apply the ICCPR&ICESCR in the practice and other issues. There were a total of 20 people participated in this event.