

On June 17, 2013, Australia's representative office in Taiwan, representative of New Zealand Commerce and Industry Office in Taiwan, director of European Economic and Trade Office in Taiwan and Deputy Director of the Office of Swiss Business in Taiwan visited Ministry of Justice and exchanged views on a wide range of human rights issues and the death penalty. There were a total of 11 people participated in this event.

