

On November 25, 2013, the Ministry of Justice invited Professor ERROL P. MENDES, University of Ottawa, to exchange the experience of promoting human rights so as to expand the international human rights exchanges, and learn from the experience of other countries on promotion and protection of human rights. There were a total of 7 people participated in this