

On October 29, 2014, British Professor Ian Cram and Professor Colm O'Conneide visited the Ministry of Justice to exchange views on important human rights issues. There were a total of 6 people participated in this event.